Meet Our Team

Charles Gordon holds an MBA from the University of Toronto and is a current member of the Ontario College of Teachers. For the last 14 years, Mr. Gordon has developed and conducted training to a range of industry sectors for participants at various levels of management. He firmly believes that adults learn by doing through guided inquiry, purposeful talk, and reflection along with measured amounts of productive struggle.

Elsa Nesbit holds a MA in Linguistics from California State University, Long Beach. As a 5 year veteran with Breakview, her teaching philosophy comes from her years of experience educating individuals and groups at all organizational levels. Ms. Nesbit holds the belief that there is always room for growth when it comes to working together effectively - no one is perfect. And with the world in a constant state of shift, it's up to each person to take steps and adapt in order to succeed.

Joseph Mikac holds a BA in Communications specializing in Human Resources Management from the University of Waterloo. He has worked for Breakview for over 10 years and has worked in various management positions in both unionized and non-unionized environments. Mr. Mikac believes in a growth mindset with learners developing their skills through effort and persistence. In addition, success comes by maintaining an open mindset while focusing on learning goals.
